SECTION 2: Test Result Assessment

NCU-TEGS has total score 80 and determines the criteria for test result assessment in compliance with the standard of CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) as follows:

Table 2.1: Shows comparing between NCU-TEGS and CEFR standard, and NCU criteria.

Score ranges	CEFR Levels	Criteria
40 - 80	B2 (Upper Intermediate)	Meets the NCU criteria.
32 - 39	B1 (Intermediate)
24 -31	A2 (Elementary)	Should be developed. In this case, a test taker can select to register for taking the provided course: Academic English for Graduate Studies . If the course taker can pass this course, the taker will be considered to be equivalent to CEFR level B1.
0 - 23	A1 (Beginner)	Should be developed. In this case, a test taker can select to register for taking the provided course: Foundation English for Graduate Studies . If the course taker can pass this course, the taker will be considered to be equivalent to CEFR level A2.

Remark: See CEFR Levels shown in Table 2.3

NCU Graduate students must get CEFR level B1 or more that is considered to meet NCU criteria for English proficiency, and the students have 3 alternatives as follows:

- (1) take NCU-TEGS until they can meet NCU criteria or
- (2) take course/s provided, as mentioned in section 3, for developing their English skills. However, they should take NCU-TEGS to know their CEFR level or
- (3) use the result of other NCU-accepted English tests (see Table 2.2) that they can conduct as per the provided guidelines as follows:
 - a) Propose to program for being considered as student qualification (admission or graduation).
 - b) As on proposed date, the result of such English test must be valid as per the 2-year duration of the test result.

Table 2.3: CEFR Levels

level group	level group name	level	level name	description
A	Basic User	A1	Breakthrough or beginner	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.
		A2	Waystage or elementary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.
B	Independent User	B1	Threshold or intermediate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics that are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
		B2	Vantage or upper intermediate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
C	Proficient User	C1	Effective Operational Proficiency or advanced	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express ideas fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
		C2	Mastery or proficiency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in the most complex situations.

SECTION 3: The Details of Short Courses for Developing English

1. Course provided:

NCU-TEGS Testing Center provides 2 courses for developing English for NCU graduate students, including general/non-student public, that are as follows:

1.1 Foundation English for Graduate Studies: This course is fundamental English that aims to develop 4 English skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. If the course takers can pass this course, the takers will be considered to be equivalent to CEFR level B1.

1.2 Academic English for Graduate Studies: This upper level still aims to develop 4 English skills but focuses on academic English. If the course takers can pass this course, the takers will be considered to be equivalent to CEFR level A2.

2. Condition for course registration:

Divided into 2 cases as follows:

2.1 In case of being NCU graduate students: In case a graduate student does not meet NCU criteria for English proficiency and would like to take 1 or 2 course/s provided, as the case may be. The student who has registered for taking a course must complete such course, and cannot apply for taking NCU-TEGS during taking a course, except in case the student selects to take both 2 courses and can complete the first course; in this case, the student can apply for taking the test before taking the other course. If the student can pass such test, the student is not required to take the other course; but if the student cannot pass such test, the student has 2 alternatives as follows:

(1) takes the other course for completing as per NCU criteria or

(2) takes NCU-TEGS until the student can meet NCU criteria.

However, if a graduate student has passed NCU-TEGS and would like to take either or both 2 courses in order to develop English skills, the student can do that as well as in case of being general/non-student public.

2.2 In case of being general/non-student public: Those who would like to develop English skills are able to register for taking either or both 2 courses without prerequisite condition.

3. Course duration: 45 hours

You are informed that opening the course/s will be considered by North-Chiang Mai University that depends on the number of registrants.

4. Minimum of the number of course takers: At least 15 takers

5. Study venue: Online class

6. Study result assessment: 60% or more, showing as "S" (Satisfactory)

7. Tuition fee: 4,500 Baht per course per person

8. Payment:

- ☐ Cash: Pay at Finance section, office of president, North-Chiang Mai University
- ☐ Bank transfer: Via Bangkok Bank, BigC Hangdong 2, A.C. No. 486-701813-9
